SWE NATIONAL CONFERENCE: WE09 OCTOBER 15-17, 2009

Less than a week after Fall Break, Cornell's SWE leaders ventured to Long Beach, CA for WE09—SWE's National Conference. More than 6,000 women engineers from across the country attended, including undergraduates, graduates, and professionals. Highlights for Cornell's representatives included an alumni dinner with Cornell SWE presidents from recent years and other Cornell graduates.

Cornell's SWE chapter was also honored with the Gold Level Award for Outstanding Collegiate Section at the conference.

Cornell was judged against a few hundred other collegiate sections based on a report submitted months earlier that outlined a range of its achievements, including: planning and administration; communication and member recruitment; regional/national participation; education and outreach; inclusiveness and diversity; and alignment with the national SWE mission. Cornell was last honored with SWE's top national honor in 2007. Congratulations to all SWE members!

PROFESSIONAL NETWORKING DINNER

SEPTEMBER 15, 2009

Tablefuls of enthusiastic engineering students and company representatives filled the Carrier Grand Ballroom of the Statler Hotel the night of this year's annual Professional Networking Dinner, sponsored by SWE. The day before the Engineering and Technical Career Fair, students had the opportunity to meet with three of their favorite companies of the 26 represented through a series of three rotations. While students asked questions of company representatives and passed out their resumes, they enjoyed a delicious catered meal, followed by desserts and coffee.

Attendees also heard from keynote speaker Rosemary Farrell, Program Director of Naval Helicopter Programs at Lockheed Martin Systems Integration, who spoke about her career and the importance of networking. Other speakers included Interim Director of Diversity Programs in Engineering Sara Hernandez, and Professional Networking Dinner Committee Co-Directors Liz Tutunjian and Christine Catudal. A raffle drawing for various prizes helped bring the dinner to a close as attendees wrapped up their conversations.
